It seems that Mr. Cleveland does not like the report of Admiral Walker regarding Hawaiian matters. It shows too much Hawaiian desire for annexation. It is idle folly for the President to kick against the pricks. If he had more patriotism and tact he would help instead of hindering the result.

"Chic" is the name of a new illustrated paper started in San Francisco by Bob Davis and Frank Nankin the artist. There is room for a clear and artistic illustrated paper in San Francisco, there being none there at present. As a copy has not yet reached us we are not in a position to make any very extended remarks about it.

Notice.

I take pleasure in stating to the public that I have opened the Silver State Restaurant and will run the business under my sole supervision. Not having a partner and being untrammelled in the management of the business, I shall endeavor to merit a full share of public patronage.

IDA WINTERS.

"The German Soldier."

Mr. James A. Reilly, a clever dialect comedian will open at the Carson Opera House Tuesday evening Nov. 20th, for one night only. In one of his latest and most popular successes entitled "A German Soldier," which is a true picture of the Franco-Prussian War. The play is bright and witty from start to finish. No doubt many of the citizens of Carson have had the pleasure of witnessing some of Mr. Reilly's performances at the Grand Opera House San Francisco. Mr. Reilly and his company are spoken of in the highest terms by the San Francisco dailies and the Eastern press, who call him the King of German Comedians. Among the members of Mr. Reilly's company is Miss Mary Templeton, a very clever soprano and a young singer, and Master Robbie Reilly the phenomenal six-year-old boy actor, who plays the part of Daisy. He is beyond a doubt the most brilliant child performer on the stage to day. This a first class attraction in every respect and will do well in Carson.

Donation Tea.

The King's Daughters will give a Donation Tea in the rooms over Raycrafts stable next Tuesday afternoon and evening. No admission will be charged at all and tea will be served gratis in the afternoon. In the evening an informal entertainment will be given, numerous fancy and useful articles will be for sale and refreshments will be served for 25 cents.

Donations of all kinds are solicited—cast-off clothing, groceries, money, bed-covers, in fact, anything that will help to alleviate the sufferings of the unfortunate or assist the needy, will be gratefully received by the young ladies.

Little girls who wish to purchase doll hats or capes are invited to examine the stock that will be on exhibition at the Donation Tea.

Nevada Strikers.

The Nevada railway strikers who were arrested at Carlin will be tried in Carson next week. Most of them are without funds, and the Trades Unions of this place and the generously disposed of all classes will be called upon to aid them financially in defending themselves. There is a committee of railway men here from California soliciting assistance for California strikers. Their object is a worthy one, but charity begins at home, and Nevadans should remember while contributing to them that the Nevada strikers also need aid and have a prior claim.—Chronicle

Nevada Cotton.

Bunkerville will put 30,000 pounds of cotton into the Washington county mills this fall. The gin at Bunkerville is now at work cleaning and baling the cotton for market. This valuable product is receiving more attention each year and will very shortly be raised in quantity in the Muddy Valley also, where experiments have demonstrated the soil and climate to be particularly adapted to it.—Pioche Record.

Jim Townsend Denies It.

Jim Townsend requests us from Lundy to state that the report that he was elected Justice of the Peace is a lie. He never even ran for it. He says he would lose all his patronage if he held the office. Most of his subscribers are old boys, drunkards and peace disturbers, and if he were dealing out law in Lundy he would bankrupt the Index.

The reward of $10 offered by the Silver State for the best designation of the political principles of the Washoe county gang who voted for Doughty for Congress, Cleveland for Governor, Sumnerfield for State Senator and Hogan for Assemblyman, has brought forth the following answers up to date:

Reno, Nev., Nov. 13, '94

Ed. Silver State: I respectfully submit the following name of the new political party of Reno: It is the "I'll tackle you, you tackle me" party of Washoe county: Give me something harder. Send along your ten dollars.

R. R. Crawford.

Winnemucca, Nov. 15, '94.

Ed. Silver State: I think the following name appropriate: "The Peep-Pop-Rep-rag-baby-dam—phool-inter-convertable party without principles, and on a parity with Sum-Dough in tenacity to Clive Huntington's competitive airline for revenue only.

John Paul Karsarge.

Send in your answer, everybody. The competition is a free for all and members of the gang with intelligence enough to come up to the standard of the average Reno Gazette communications are requested to sober up for a couple of minutes and write us what they think would be a good designation of their political (un)principles.—Silver State.

Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 17.—Con. Riordan, the pugilist, who was knocked unconscious last night by Bob Fitzsimmons in a sparring exhibition, died at the Candee House at 3:30 o'clock this morning.
